

GIVEN TWENTY YEARS

Kidnaper of Freddie Muth Promptly Tried.

RAILROADED TO PRISON

Arrested and Sentenced in Less Than Twenty-Four Hours.

PRISONER IN WRETCHED STATE

Paced His Cell All Night, Sobbing and Moaning of Wife and Children.

PHILADELPHIA, June 19.—"Had I the disposition of this case I would summon a large number of mothers here and turn you over to their tender mercies, but as the law fixes the penalty for crimes like yours I can do nothing but commit you without bail for the action of the grand jury on the charge of kidnaping."

These words were addressed by Magistrate Eisenbrow to John Joseph Kean, the abductor of Freddie Muth, the seven-year-old son of Charles Muth, the Columbia avenue jeweler, who with his captive was discovered yesterday after a six days' search in a vacant house in West Philadelphia.

Prisoner to Be Railroaded.

It was the aim of the police department to railroad the prisoner to the penitentiary and immediately after the hearing Captain of Detectives Donaghy went before the grand jury with his witnesses and asked for an indictment. District Attorney Bell said he would do everything in his power to facilitate the trial of Kean.

The magistrate's office was crowded when the abductor was arraigned for a hearing, many of the spectators being women, and many threats could be heard when the prisoner was taken to the dock.

Freddie Muth was brought to the court room by his father. He was a different boy from the child who was found dirty and hungry in the unoccupied house after a week's enforced absence from home. He was attired in a neat blue flannel sailor suit and a pink rose was pinned to his lapel. Mr. Muth said the child was none the worse for his experience. In strong contrast to the appearance of the boy was the appearance of his father.

After a sleepless night in the cell he was haggard and wan. His eyes shifted nervously and his whole frame trembled visibly. He still seemed to fear bodily injury and eyed the spectators suspiciously. The police say he paced the cell all night sobbing and moaning, his wife and children being upmost in his mind.

When he was placed in the dock Kean nodded to Freddie Muth, who sat beside his father, and the boy smiled. Pointing to Kean the little fellow said: "There he is, papa, see."

Kean appeared to exert a strange influence over the child, who showed a feeling akin to friendship for the man.

Hearing Was Brief.

The hearing was brief. Special Policemen Clare and Vale told of the arrest. James Lenahan, the messenger boy who delivered the note at the school, testified that Freddie was inveigled from his class room, related the circumstances of his meeting with Kean. Joseph Sager, the baker, testified to seeing the man and boy in Elmer Rhoades' cafe, and the latter verified Sager's testimony.

Kean made a statement which was a repetition of that made to Superintendent of Police Taylor last night. He denied that he had restrained the child in any way, but said, on the contrary, that Freddie had opportunities to leave him several times. He said he had not ill-treated the boy, and in this he was corroborated by the Muth child.

Kean Promptly Convicted.

The grand jury later found a true bill against Kean and he was given an immediate trial and convicted in less than an hour. Judge Sulzberger sentenced the kidnaper to twenty years in the penitentiary, and he was taken to the penitentiary to begin sentence less than twenty-four hours had elapsed.

When Kean was taken before Judge Sulzberger he requested that he be allowed to make a statement. He said there were mitigating circumstances in connection with the kidnaping, but that the judge told the prisoner he must either plead guilty or not guilty. Kean then pleaded guilty.

Three witnesses, the two special policemen who made the arrest, and the proprietor of the eating house who had seen Kean and the boy before the judge. No jury was chosen. The prisoner was sentenced immediately.

FOUND DEAD IN AIRSHAFT.

Mysterious Features Attend a Chicago Tragedy.

CHICAGO, June 19.—Under mysterious circumstances William F. Reynolds of Lexington, Tex., met death early today in an airshaft from the sixth floor of the Grace Hotel. Reynolds came to Chicago last night with Sheriff Scarborough and several other persons from Lexington as a witness against Patrick Lavine, alias "Cyclone Pat," who is under arrest, charged with being an accomplice of Charles Coleman, a safe blow, who was killed May 20, near Giddings, Tex., in a fight with Sheriff Scarborough.

Before retiring Reynolds appeared extremely nervous. He said he did not wish to sleep alone, and begged to be allowed to sleep in the room occupied by Thomas Largent, a member of the party. While Largent was asleep conditions indicate that Reynolds may have left the bed, and, going to a window opening into the airshaft, either jumped or fell into the shaft. A peculiar coincidence, however, is the fact that Sheriff Scarborough had asked for police protection. Yesterday he telegraphed to Chicago asking that the train be met by a detail of police. He said he had reason to fear an attempt might be made on the lives of some of his witnesses. The alleged plot was discovered on the train on which the party was coming to Chicago as Reynolds was leaving Kansas City. A man who was a former friend of Coleman got on the train, and at St. Louis two other men got on the train and met the one who had boarded the train at Kansas City.

Sheriff Scarborough, suspecting some plot, telegraphed the government official for protection. When the members of the party arrived in Chicago they were met by detectives, but nothing unusual occurred at the station.

Reynolds' statements were made to the police yesterday while he was securing warrants for several members of his society who, he alleges, attacked and beat him in his office to get at him. The police were called and alone saved his life. Parker is forcing payment of an obsolete 5 per cent law on taxes not paid by tomorrow. The citizens are in arms and violence is feared.

TRIED TO MOB TREASURER.

Police Called in to Defend County Official at Toledo.

TOLEDO, Ohio, June 19.—An angry mob tried to kill County Treasurer Peter Parker this morning, and started to tear down the cage in his office to get at him. The police were called and alone saved his life. Parker is forcing payment of an obsolete 5 per cent law on taxes not paid by tomorrow. The citizens are in arms and violence is feared.

RUSSIA SHOCKED BY MASSACRE

Newspaper, Accusing the Authorities of Planning the Riot, Confiscated.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 19.—M. Vinaver, a member of the lower house, today received the following dispatch from M. Jacobson, a member of the commission sent to Bialystok by the lower house of parliament to investigate the Jewish massacre there:

"Order was restored yesterday. Seventy-eight Jews and six Christians have been buried. The majority of the dead were killed with bayonets or rifle bullets. The total of the dead has not yet been established. A cossack yesterday killed a passing Jew."

"The city council has unanimously declared that the massacre was not the result of race hatred, but was due to provocation, and the troops and police participated in the outrages."

"The reports that Jews and revolutionists attacked the inhabitants are false."

The massacre of Jews at Bialystok has shocked the country and added to the general excitement and the revelations which the commission of the lower house of parliament are expected to make will only add fuel to the flame. Thus far the censor at Bialystok has evidently refused to allow the press correspondents to send anything reflecting on the authorities. The Golas, a new paper edited by M. Ulianoff, a member of the lower house of parliament, containing an account of the horrors and charging the authorities of Bialystok with deliberately preparing the riot, was confiscated when it appeared today.

FEAR OF A COUP D'ETAT

CRISIS AT HAND IN THE HISTORY OF RUSSIA.

WILL RETURN TO WORK

OHIO MINERS AND OPERATORS REACH AN AGREEMENT.

AWAITS KING HAAKON

NORWAY TO GIVE HEARTY WELCOME TO ITS NEW SOVEREIGN.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 19.—In spite of the government's left-handed denial that it intends to order a parliamentary recess, the Reich today expressed the fear that a coup d'etat is imminent, and appealed to the country to make its voice heard in favor of the dismissal of the ministry and a prolongation of the existence of parliament.

An official denial has been given out of the report that members of the ministry participate in the sessions of the Treppoff star chamber at Peterhof, which, it is understood, has absolutely decided that parliament must be got rid of, and is only hesitating in regard to the method. Three ways are proposed.

First.—To order a recess of parliament for three months.

Second.—To dissolve parliament and order new elections based on universal suffrage.

Third.—To declare the council of the empire and upper house of the representative body until a new parliament is elected.

There are two features of the situation which make the court camellia pause. The early necessity for money and the disarray over the growing dissatisfaction of the troops.

DUEL IN BROOKLYN STREETS.

Little Italian Puts Bullet Through Another's Heart.

NEW YORK, June 19.—A duel to the death with pistols as weapons was fought in Harrison street, Brooklyn, today between a diminutive Italian and a giant longshoreman of the same nationality, in which the latter was almost instantly killed.

Deverill Carnardo, the longshoreman, armed with a revolver, fired three times at his antagonist, who fired once in return. Carnardo's shot went wild. The bullet from the other man's weapon went through the giant's heart. The slayer escaped.

CROWELL DECLINES.

Will Not Answer Questions of Senate Committee.

In defiance of the order of the Senate committee on inter-oceanic canals that he answer certain questions propounded to him in the investigation of isthmian canal affairs, William Nelson Crowell repeated his refusal today. He stated that the questions involved confidential relations with his client, the new Panama Canal Company.

The questions were read to him by Senator Morgan and when the first one was asked, which concerned the first work he did for the Panama Canal Company in America, the witness calmly took from his pocket a brief prepared statement which he proceeded to read. He stated that his knowledge of the subject under discussion was derived in the course of his professional employment and that he must decline to disclose the interests of his employer concerning any private business matters.

In refusing he said he did so with the profound respect for the committee. After going over the previous record at some length in order to give the witness another opportunity to answer, the committee adjourned next Tuesday, without having conducted the record.
